Anti-Ragging Week (12-18 August) Observed at D.H.S.K. College, 2026

Anti-Ragging Week was observed at the prestigious D.H.S.K. College (Autonomous) from 12 to 18 August, through various awareness, creative and competitive programmes. The week-long programmes were organised in accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC), in collaboration with the College Anti-Ragging Committee and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC).

1) As part of the anti-ragging awareness programme, the newly admitted students were sensitised about the harmful effects of ragging and ways to remain alert and aware. The Principal, Dr. Sashikanta Saikia, Vice-Principal Dr. Partha Ganguly, and Chairperson of the Anti-Ragging Committee, Dr. Moromi Talukdar, addressed the students. The main objective of the programme was to create awareness about the adverse effects of ragging and to foster a safe, respectful and inclusive college environment.

2) On 12 August, an anti-ragging awareness programme was organised by the Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squad.

3) On 13 August, a spot essay-writing competition on the theme “Anti-Ragging: Building a Safe, Respectful and Inclusive Campus” was held, followed by a spot slogan-writing competition on 14 August.

In the spot essay-writing competition, Bitopan Dutta, 5th Semester, Department of Botany, won the first prize. Biraj Ballav Gogoi, 5th Semester, Department of Chemistry, and Aftab Ahmed, 3rd Semester, Department of Anthropology, jointly secured the second prize. Akash Anudeep Saikia, 1st Semester, Department of Chemistry, and Sanjiban Gogoi, 3rd Semester, Department of Anthropology, jointly secured the third prize.

In the spot slogan-writing competition held on 14 August, Bitopan Dutta, 5th Semester, Department of Botany, won the first prize; Roman Kumar Roy, 1st Semester, Department of English, won the second prize; and Anshuman Gogoi, 3rd Semester, Department of English, won the third prize.

4) Another anti-ragging awareness programme was organised on 14 August for the residents of Rukmini Devi Kanak Girls' Hostel and the New Girls' Hostel, with Dr. Alakananda Barua attending as the resource person.

5) On 17 August, an anti-ragging awareness programme was organised at Dimbeswar Chaliha Boys' Hostel. Professor Rajiv Lochan Bora, IQAC Coordinator Dr. Dipanjkar Gogoi, and DC Hostel Superintendent Dr. Biraj Dutta attended the programme as resource persons.

6) One of the major attractions of the week-long programme was an anti-ragging street play held in front of the college campus on 17 August. The play conveyed a strong social message against ragging. Nine students from different departments actively participated in the street play: Upasana Dutta, Krishtee Bhattacharya, Miran Chaliha, Biraj Ballav Gogoi, Partha Kalita, Pallabi Bora, Sanskrita Saikia, Sunny Duwara, and Shibanug Gogoi.

The street play was written and directed by Mr. Mriganka Nath, Professor, Department of Performing Arts, with Mr. Bhaskarjyoti Gogoi, Professor, ITEP, serving as the Assistant Director. Through the performance, a strong message was conveyed to the students that ragging is a serious social and educational problem.

ANTI-RAGGING WEEK
India, Assam, Dibrugarh, Dibrugarh East
Kashab Chandra Gogoi Path, Dibrugarh East,
Dibrugarh, 786003, Assam, India
Lat: 27.479493
Long: 94.924278
17/08/2026 13:17:51
Dibrugarl
Google

ANTI-RAGGING WEEK

ANTI-RAGGING WEEK
India, Assam, Dibrugarh, Dibrugarh East
Kashab Chandra Gogoi Path, Dibrugarh East, Dibrugarh, 786003,
Assam, India
Lat: 27.479493
Long: 94.924278
17/08/2026 13:16:45
Dibrugarl
Google

7) The Anti-Ragging Week concluded on 18 August with a prize-distribution ceremony held in the Principal's Conference Room. Students who successfully participated in the various competitions and programmes throughout the week were felicitated with prizes.

Through the series of awareness, competitive and creative activities, D.H.S.K. College reaffirmed its commitment to maintaining a zero-ragging environment and ensuring a safe, dignified, respectful and inclusive campus for every student.