

Report on Functional Assamese Language
Course under the Scheme of Vidya Vistar,
Conducted by Dept. of Sanskrit and Hindi and IQAC DHSK College in Collaboration With Lakshmibai College, Delhi University

Under the scheme of Vidya Vistar, Dept. of Sanskrit, Dept. of Hindi and IQAC DHSK College, Dibrugarh in collaboration with Lakshmibai College, Delhi University started its first Functional Assamese Language Course for 15 days i.e. 30 hours. It was an online course and the platform was Google Meet. For the said course the Resource Person cum Coordinator were Dr. Sayanika Goswami, Assistant Professor, Department of Sanskrit and Dr. Lakhima Deori, Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi and another resource person Bini Saikia, Assistant Professor Department of Sanskrit.

Bharatiya Bhasha Kendra of Lakshmibai College launched its ADD- ON courses on different languages of India on 10th march 2022. In this Launch Programme along with our college all other colleges also participated. Functional Assamese Language Course started from 25th April 2022 till 11th May 2022. In the Inaugural Session Vice Principal Dr. Priyadev Goswami of DHSK College and Prof. Lata Sharma IQAC Director Lakshmibai college delivered the inaugural speech. There were seven participants 6 from Lakshmibai college and one from DHSK College. In this course we covered the Introduction of Assam and Assamese language, grammar, greetings, polite words, etiquette, names of the seasons, colours, parts of the body, Assamese folktales, music festivals and everyday conversation, emergency services etc. and parallelly practice sessions were done. Valedictory session was moderated by Dr. Lakhima Deori on 11th May 2022. The session was started with a welcoming speech by Principal, DHSK College Dr. Sashi Kanta Saikia and valedictory speech by Dr. Mridul Sarma, Director IQAC followed by Viva-voce of the participants. The session ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Sayanika Goswami.

