NOTICE

Participation in "Brikhya Bandhu" Initiative - Online Registration and Plantation Drive

All students of DHSK College (Autonomous), Dibrugarh are hereby informed that the Government of Assam, under the flagship programme "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam 2026", has launched the "Brikhya Bandhu" Initiative, a youth-led afforestation programme aimed at promoting environmental conservation and increasing green cover across the State.

The programme schedule is as follows:

1. 15 July - 31 July 2026: Online registration of students, employees and teachers.
2. 06 August - 11 August 2026: Distribution and delivery of seedlings.
3. 10 August - 14 August 2026: Plantation drive and first geo-tagged verification.
4. Subsequent verification will be carried out by the concerned departments.

In connection with the govt. of Assam initiatives the DHSK College (Autonomous) also wanted to incorporate and developed the habit of plantation and its maintenance among the teachers, students and the employees of the college. Therefore all the students of DHSK College (Autonomous) and the employees are requested to register themselves in the online portal developed by the college authority i.e. <https://tarupal.dhsk.org/>. After the plantation the students' needs to upload a geo-tagged photograph of the plant and they need to take care of the plant upto the next one year, so that the growth can be measured properly.

All are advised to complete their registration within the stipulated period and actively participate in the plantation and maintenance of the planted saplings. Students are expected to cooperate with the College and the concerned authorities to make this environmental initiative a grand success.

Your wholehearted participation in this noble mission for a greener Assam is earnestly solicited.
